| County Counsel, Andy Read gave a brief description of the Brown Act. He went over how the Brown Act applies to the Juvenile Delinquency Prevention Commission (JDPC). He stated that JDPC cannot conduct business at JJC meetings since the two entities are separate and governed by two different legislations. Commissioner Dulay reflected that there is educational material available on the Probation site in regards to the Brown Act.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                           |
